

HOW TO WALK IN CHRIST
LESSON #1

NAME: _____

THINK ABOUT IT: Now that I am a Christian, what new challenges do I face?

God's Word shows us that a successful Christian will be spiritually fruitful. The Bible also show us how we can achieve this victorious spiritual life. This lesson will help you begin your walk and be a success for God.

I. I NEED CONFIDENCE TO WALK IN CHRIST

A. Assurance that I am going to heaven.

(Read the verse then circle the letter that corresponds to the most correct answer.)

1. Acts 3:19 tells us that we must: (a) live as the Bible says; (b) go to church; (c) accept Christ; (d) repent of our sins.
2. John 3:16 teaches us that those who receive eternal life must first: (a) confess their sins; (b) live a good life; (c) believe in Christ; (d) pay their tithe.
3. 1 John 1:9 states that our sins are forgiven if we: (a) ask Christ to forgive us;
(b) confess our sins; (c) repent of our sins; (d) accept Christ's forgiveness.
4. John 1:12 is a wonderful promise that states: (a) ask and you will receive; (b) if we have faith in His promise, Christ will do it; (c) if we receive Christ, we become children of God; (d) Christ will do what He promised.
5. Revelation 3:20 reveals that before we ask Christ into our hearts and lives, He is: (a) interested in us; (b) speaking to us; (c) wanting to help us; (d) knocking at our heart's door.

B. Assurance that I am loved even when I sin.

(Read the verses and then write "true" or "false" in the blank before the statement.)

- _____ 1. Christ has great patience with those who have sinned. (1 Timothy 1:15-16)

- _____ 2. Jesus fully understands our weaknesses and helps us in time of need. (Hebrews 4:15-16)
- _____ 3. Jesus refuses to help the believer who sins. (1 John 2:1)

THINK ABOUT IT: How is Christ beginning to change my life-style?

II. I NEED COURAGE TO WALK IN CHRIST.

Taking the first steps are both difficult and exciting.

A. Courage to begin my new walk in Christ.

(Match the correct scripture with its corresponding statement.)
